

Help for Haiti

The earthquake that hit Port au Prince, Haiti on January 12 will impact this country for years to come. As our presbytery determines how it can best help the people there, we hope that you will consider being a part of that help. Charleston Atlantic Presbytery continues its long relationship with the St. Josephs Homes for Boys and the Women's Microfinance Project. All of the residents of the three homes escaped without serious injury, but their buildings have sustained significant damage. Papy (Smith Joseph) who works with the Microfinance Project, and his family are safe, but we know little about the women with whom he works. PC(USA) missionaries and the four mission teams from churches in the U.S are all safe.

What can you do to help?

- Give through your church to Presbyterian Disaster Assistance. Our denomination has pledged $1 million to the relief effort. Learn more at www.pcusa.org/pda.
- Give through your church to Hearts with Haiti, an organization which supports St. Josephs Homes for Boys. Their website is www.heartswithhaiti.com.
- Give through your church to Water Missions International, a local organization, providing clean water systems for the people of Haiti.
- Pray for the people of Haiti as they begin the slow process of recovery.
- Watch Charleston Atlantic Presbytery's website: www.chas-atlpresbytery.org for updates on the situation and ways in which you can help.

Help for Haiti

The earthquake that hit Port au Prince, Haiti on January 12 will impact this country for years to come. As our presbytery determines how it can best help the people there, we hope that you will consider being a part of that help. Charleston Atlantic Presbytery continues its long relationship with the St. Josephs Homes for Boys and the Women's Microfinance Project. All of the residents of the three homes escaped without serious injury, but their buildings have sustained significant damage. Papy (Smith Joseph) who works with the Microfinance Project, and his family are safe, but we know little about the women with whom he works. PC(USA) missionaries and the four mission teams from churches in the U.S are all safe.

What can you do to help?

- Give through your church to Presbyterian Disaster Assistance. Our denomination has pledged $1 million to the relief effort. Learn more at www.pcusa.org/pda.
- Give through your church to Hearts with Haiti, an organization which supports St. Josephs Homes for Boys. Their website is www.heartswithhaiti.com.
- Give through your church to Water Missions International, a local organization, providing clean water systems for the people of Haiti.
- Pray for the people of Haiti as they begin the slow process of recovery.
- Watch Charleston Atlantic Presbytery's website: www.chas-atlpresbytery.org for updates on the situation and ways in which you can help.